

Sixty-eight Seniors at PHS Planning More Education

As the present school year comes to an end, 68 of the 96 seniors have decided to further their education by attending a college, trade school, beauty school, or business school.

Fifteen seniors are planning to attend the University of Nebraska. They are Pam Brookhouser, Jim Dietz, Jay Endelicato, Nancy Evers, Alan How, Linda Lepert, Max Linder, Deb Lindquist, Mary McQuin, Fred Ulrich, Linda Whitehouse, Phyllis Thiessen, Ron Mayle and George Schworm.

Wayne State College has been the choice for ten seniors. The students who plan to attend this college are Emery Bashus, John Campbell, Linda Henry, Yvonne Jochimsen, Mark Kildare, Don Kohout, Ann Morrison, Patsy Schmidt, Craig Smith and Larry Smith.

Dave Carper and Dave Morris plan to enroll at Nebraska Wesleyan this fall.

Mike Brookhouser, Henry Egert, Rodney Jenkins and Frank Pohlmeier will attend the Omaha University in September.

Kenny Heedum will attend Midland Lutheran College; Marcia Thun will enroll at the College of Saint Mary's; Lonnie Hoschar will study at Peru State College; and Jeanie Young plans to enroll at Bellevue College.

Many seniors have chosen to attend colleges out of state. The students are Terri Engelkemier (Iowa State University), Genny Lebens (Avila College, Kansas City), Kathy Hackwith (Birmingham Southern College, Alabama), Joan Wehrbein (Kansas State University, Manhattan), Tom Osthus (Buena Vista, Iowa), and Bill Spangler (Massachusetts Institution of Technology).

Many of the senior boys have decided to attend the Milford Trade School. These boys are Tom Hirz, Larry Rhoden, Dave Rice, Ralph Schneider, Mike Stastka, Tom Toman and Steve Miller.

There are four senior girls who will attend the Commercial Extension School of Commerce. They are Cathy Buechler, Vicki Cole, Cynthia Osterholm, and Connie Richards.

Terry Pfeifer plans to attend Anthis Beauty School this fall. Linda Thiede and Janet Eraas will enroll at Franco's School of Hair Styling.

The occupation of nursing will be taken up by two of the senior girls. DiAnne Tesch will attend the Bryan Memorial Hospital School of Nursing in Lincoln and Mary Peterson will attend Saint Catherine's School of Nursing in Omaha.

Dick Chappell plans to enroll in Creighton Tech's Apprenticeship School in Omaha. The DeVry Institute of Technology will be the choice of Sam Oenning. Jerry Dowling will attend a Technical School in Sioux City, Iowa.

Many seniors have not decided where they will attend college and included in this list are Dennis Dasher, Greg Morehead, Steve Nielsen, Denis Strobel, Nick Kimble, Barb Muehe, and Roseanna Shropshire.