

Professional Photographers of Nebraska, Inc.

An invitation to you... a fellow photographer...

2005 PPN's Fall conference (Oct. 22nd – 24th in Grand Island, NE) of talent covers all aspects of experience levels, from the business programs to web based marketing, posing selling and the industry standard image enhancing tools of today for those digital camera users. All necessary information is in this flyer, hotel room rates, conference fees, etc.

If your not a member... you may come as a “guest” of PPN, yet the fall conference fee will still be needed for attendance. This is PPN's way of seeking your participation in your state photography association, and offering you programs, fellowship and a future source for business and photograhic education. Membership applications are on our web site for review. Any questions, please contact our membership chairman, Teri Funk of Hassel & Funk Photography in Papillion, NE. 402.991.4413 Also review our web site: www.ppfon.org for more information and links to other PPN members.

Sincerely yours ... Steve Miller, President Elect and Membership devolpment chairman.

---

Professional Photographers of Nebraska, Inc.

An invitation to you... a fellow photographer...

2005 PPN's Fall conference (Oct. 22nd – 24th in Grand Island, NE) of talent covers all aspects of experience levels, from the business programs to web based marketing, posing selling and the industry standard image enhancing tools of today for those digital camera users. All necessary information is in this flyer, hotel room rates, conference fees, etc.

If your not a member... you may come as a “guest” of PPN, yet the fall conference fee will still be needed for attendance. This is PPN's way of seeking your participation in your state photography association, and offering you programs, fellowship and a future source for business and photograhic education. Membership applications are on our web site for review. Any questions, please contact our membership chairman, Teri Funk of Hassel & Funk Photography in Papillion, NE. 402.991.4413 Also review our web site: www.ppfon.org for more information and links to other PPN members.

Sincerely yours ... Steve Miller, President Elect and Membership devolpment chairman.

---

Professional Photographers of Nebraska, Inc.

An invitation to you... a fellow photographer...

2005 PPN's Fall conference (Oct. 22nd – 24th in Grand Island, NE) of talent covers all aspects of experience levels, from the business programs to web based marketing, posing selling and the industry standard image enhancing tools of today for those digital camera users. All necessary information is in this flyer, hotel room rates, conference fees, etc.

If your not a member... you may come as a “guest” of PPN, yet the fall conference fee will still be needed for attendance. This is PPN's way of seeking your participation in your state photography association, and offering you programs, fellowship and a future source for business and photograhic education. Membership applications are on our web site for review. Any questions, please contact our membership chairman, Teri Funk of Hassel & Funk Photography in Papillion, NE. 402.991.4413 Also review our web site: www.ppfon.org for more information and links to other PPN members.

Sincerely yours ... Steve Miller, President Elect and Membership devolpment chairman.